PETER HERD@YOUR SERVICE !

A bit about ourselves A family run business.....

The company is still very much a family run firm and we are now into its 5th generation.

Over the years Peter Herds aim for producing “Fresh Fresh Fresh” food has continued and the tradition for using only the finest, freshest ingredients continues producing over 200 lines from scratch daily in our bakery.

Over the years Peter Herd has remained successful due to its continued investment back into the business including highly efficient modern machinery & competent hard working staff.

The combination is explosive and is why as a small family business we remain competitive producing the highest standard of products that are always Fresh Fresh Fresh!!

Whatever the occasion personal or corporate...

Are you thinking of having :

- a party – a christening, birthday or anniversary
- a family reunion or even a funeral.
- A work related function ie. Working lunch, corporate meeting or event.

Do you really have the time or want to slave away in the kitchen- well do not panic- leave it to us!!!

How it works.....

It couldn't be simpler.

Browse through the booklet, tantalise your tastebuds and select your items.

Whether it be a last minute event and you need the “on the day express package” or the “any occasion package”, simply complete the order form in your own time or with help from our friendly staff in our handforth branch and we will do the rest.

We can even provide the napkins, cutlery and plates.

All the above can either be collected or delivered to your door and in certain circumstances ie. Funerals- staff can set up the buffet in your place of residence where required.
